Welcome!

It is wonderful to see so many friends returning to the 28th annual Brandon Jazz Festival. From humble beginnings of 12 groups and 2 adjudicators we have over 160 groups and 16 adjudicators this year.

A full slate of clinics and workshops are being offered and we hope you take advantage of the chance to learn from these professionals. Ask questions, soak up what they have to offer and take it with you back to your band room and share it with your friends. Everyone is here to listen and learn, to support each other as we lay it on the line when we stand up for an improvised solo and to revel in the many different styles of jazz. Have fun and respect your fellow musicians as you want them to respect you. We can all leave as Jazz Festival "winners" when we leave competition for another time and place.

Once again we are presenting a stellar evening concert series with First Take vocal jazz from Creston, Iowa plus The BU Jazz Ensemble with their special guests and Piloto and Klimax from Cuba. I dare you to sit still during the Klimax concert... it's just impossible. In fact they expect you to get up and move when they play. These are all concerts you won't soon forget and for some of you may be life changing experiences. Remember that each one of these university and professional musicians on stage once sat in the chair you now sit in at school. None of them were born accomplished musicians but worked hard and earned the right to be where they are today.

As always, if you are thinking about music when you head to university then take a close look at Brandon University. A fabulous facility, gifted teachers, a great jazz program as well as comprehensive performance and music education degrees make this a serious consideration for any graduating high school student interested in taking music. With small class sizes and personal attention you won't get lost in a class of 300 at Brandon University. Plus, Brandon is just a great place to live.

So please, enjoy the music, enjoy the concerts and enjoying listening to each other.

Jazz on!

PILOTO & KLIMAX

Gerardo Piloto's KLIMAX is by far the most sophisticated and surprisingly original of the main timba projects, representing the heart of Cuban music. As a descendant of a long line of famous Cuban composers and musicians, drummer and composer Gerardo Piloto emerged during the first decade of the history of timba as a major figure. After eight years at the center of the timba revolution, Piloto decided to start his own band in 1995, and KLIMAX was premiered at the famed La Cecilia, a discotheque on Fifth Avenue. Since then, KLIMAX has toured extensively throughout Europe and South America, and has released five albums. KLIMAX's high-quality music has a universal appeal, with fans all over the globe.

FIRST TAKE

First Take is a five-member vocal jazz ensemble from The School for Music Vocations in Creston, Iowa. They perform in a variety of musical styles including swing, Latin, gospel, and a cappella music. After releasing their first recording "For the Taking" in February 2005, First Take has recently released its second CD, "Journey Home". In 2005, the group won an award from Downbeat Magazine for Best College Vocal Jazz Group. In 2007, they performed at the International Association of Jazz Education Convention in New York. The ensemble is directed by Jeremy Fox.

Brandon University Jazz Ensemble

The School of Music will be featuring its advanced jazz ensemble during the Brandon Jazz Festival. Under the direction of Michael Cain, this ensemble will be performing a variety of music, from older classics to contemporary pieces. The ensemble is made up of some of the most talented students we have at Brandon University. Mr. Cain joined our faculty in the fall of 2008, moving here from New York. He has been a professor at the Eastman School of Music and the New England Conservatory, and worked with some of the most significant names in Jazz, including Jack DeJohnette, Pat Metheny, and Dave Holland among others. The festival is an annual highlight for our jazz studies program, and we appreciate this opportunity to perform with these wonderful guest artists.

Students perform at the 2009 Brandon Jazz Festival

Adjudicators, Artists and Clinicians

■ Lina Allemano

Lina Allemano is a Toronto-based jazz trumpeter, improviser and composer with an established and active career performing, recording and touring internationally. As well as fronting her band Linsa Allemano Four and the improvising group "N", she is also a member of many other active creative groups and appears on over 30 recordings including three of her own critically-acclaimed CDs. Featured as one of the top innovative trumpeters for the future in Downbeat Magazine, and winner of the CBC Galaxie Rising Star Award, Lina was also nominated for the 2009 National Jazz Awards Trumpeter of the Year and SOCAN Composer of the Year. Lina Allemano appears at this year's festival with the assistance of Yamaha Canada.

■ Dylan Bell

Juno-nominated Dylan Bell is a vocalist, instrumentalist, composer/arranger, music director and producer/engineer. Dylan is a mainstay on the Canadian music scene, having sung with many of Canada's premiere vocal ensembles such as Cadence, Hampton Avenue, the Nathaniel Dett Chorale, and the 1980s-era vocal pop group Retrocity. When he's not singing, he freelances as a keyboard player and bassist. Behind the mixing board, Dylan has produced or engineered several award-winning albums. His work as a composer has also garnered international recognition.

■ Jeremy Fox

Jeremy Fox serves as Professor of Music at The School For Music Vocations in Creston, Iowa. He has written for big bands, orchestras, choirs and vocal groups, and his charts are published by UNC Jazz Press, Sound Music Publications, and by his own company, Foxtrot Music. From 1999-2002, Jeremy received eight awards from Downbeat Magazine, including ones for Jazz Song, Jazz Arrangement, Studio Engineering, and for his Small Vocal Jazz Groups. Each summer, Jeremy heads the SMV Vocal Jazz Camps – five-day workshops for students, directors and enthusiasts with locations in Iowa, Regina and Winnipeg.

■ Tia Fuller

When Mack Avenue recording artist Tia Fuller picks up her sax to play, it's easy to see and hear why this artist and teacher, who has a Masters degree in Jazz Pedagogy and Performance from the University of Colorado at Boulder, was selected to be a member of the all-female band touring with R&B star, Beyoncé. Tia has played in various venues throughout the US, Europe, Africa, Asia and Australia. She is a featured soloist on the Beyoncé Experience DVD (Me, Myself and I), and has also appeared on number of major television shows, including The Oprah Winfrey Show, Today Show, and Good Morning America. An accomplished performer in her own right, Tia has recorded three CDs with her quartet and can also be seen performing regularly with a number of bands. As a devoted educator, she presents lectures and teaches ensembles and masterclasses at some of the most respected institutions in the U.S.

■ Matt Harris

After graduating with a MM from the Eastman School of Music, Matt Harris toured, wrote and recorded with jazz legends Maynard Ferguson and Buddy Rich. He is now co-director of Jazz Studies at California State University Northridge, and is a current faculty member at Idyllwild Arts summer jazz workshop. Matt is an active clinician, conductor and composer for high schools, colleges and professional bands around the world. With six CDs of original music to his credit, Matt has been fortunate to work with some of the top LA jazz musicians at his weekend 'wine bar gig' (Bellavino) in Westlake, CA, and has played piano and/or written music for some of today's top jazz vocalists. Matt recently teamed up with Tim Ries, current saxophonist for the Rolling Stones, arranging 12 "Stones" tunes for big band.

■ Jim Head

Guitarist Jim Head has performed with such notable jazz artists as Kirk MacDonald, Tim Hagans, Sheila Jordan, Lew Tabackin, Rob McConnell, Jane Bunnett, P.J. Perry, Doug Riley, Dave Restivo, Campbell Ryga, Kieran Overs, Jim Vivian, Andrew Downing, David Virelles, Steve Slagle, Kelly Jefferson, Lina Allemano, Chris Tarry, Pat LaBarbera, Hugh Fraser, Steve Wallace, and many others. He has performed in festivals, concerts and clubs across Canada, the U.S., China, and Mexico, and has been featured on numerous CD recordings. A graduate of the McGill University B.Mus. and M.Mus programs in Jazz Performance, Jim has been the Guitar Section Head at Grant MacEwan University in Edmonton since 2007.

■ John Jasavala

Jehanbakhsh (John) Jasavala has an active life as a performer, teacher, clinician and adjudicator. He has held the position of Principal Trombone with both the Windsor and Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestras, and has performed as a freelance musician with several orchestras in Ontario and Michigan, including Orchestra London, and The Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Jehanbakhsh is the founding member and leader of The Umbrella Brass Quintet and is currently a lecturer, chamber ensembles coach and instructor of trombone at the University of Western Ontario and the University of Toronto.

■ Jeff Johnson

Jeff Johnson was educated at the University of Manitoba where he completed degrees in both Music and Education. He has been actively involved in music education for the past 16 years, working as an educator, clinician, coordinator, guest conductor and adjudicator, as well as spending many years on the Jazz Faculty at International Music Camp. He was the founder and Coordinator of the Manitoba Band Association Selkirk Summer Band Workshop and continues to perform as both a freelance musician, guest artist and lead trumpet player for both the Winnipeg Jazz Orchestra and the Ron Paley Big Band.

■ Aldo Mazza

With an extensive 30-year touring and recording career, Aldo Mazza is an internationally-recognized drummer-percussionist, recording artist, clinician and educator, as well as a composer, record producer, publisher and editor. Aldo has performed four World Tours on major concert stages and has made many radio and television appearances. Aldo has recorded over 100 CDs with artists such as Celine Dion, Aldo Nova, James Brown and Chris DeBurgh, to name a few. He has performed with major symphony orchestras and at jazz festivals worldwide and is a Master clinician in Classical Percussion, World Music & Drumset. Aldo is the Founder and Artistic Director of KoSA Communications and the KoSA International Percussion Workshops and Festivals, and is the Co-founder & Artistic Director of the KoSA Cuba Workshop and Festival. The appearance of Aldo Mazza has been made possible through a grant from Conn-Selmer, Inc. Long & McQuade is the participating Conn-Selmer dealer.

■ Chris McLaughlin

Chris McLaughlin is a veteran vocal jazz educator and clinician from St. Catharines, Ontario. He formed one of the first vocal jazz ensembles in Ontario in 1986, and his groups have received national and international attention since. His high school ensembles were twice invited to perform at the International Association for Jazz Education's international conference. They also appeared at several Ontario Music Educators' Association annual conferences, performed on CBC Radio, and led a Teacher's Professional Development Day workshop for the Ottawa-Carleton school board at the National Arts Centre. His current group, the Hamilton All Star Vocal Jazz ensemble, is one of the leading university-level groups in Canada.

■ Bob Rebagliati

For over 30 years, in the North Vancouver School District, Bob Rebagliati has directed many award winning junior and senior high school ensembles in both concert band and jazz. As a music festival adjudicator and workshop leader, he has travelled throughout Canada and has been a director and clinician of numerous honour bands and jazz groups and at summer music camps. Over the years, Bob has also arranged and composed music for jazz and concert bands and has written curriculum in the areas of rhythm section and concert band percussion. His groups have been honoured with a long list of awards and recognition; throughout his career Bob has been appreciated for his dedication and insistence on excellence. He is now retired from teaching and works as a freelance music educator, pianist and percussionist/drummer.

■ Stuart Sladden

Stuart Sladden has been teaching and performing in the Toronto area since 1996. During his high school years he studied both trumpet and voice, and it was his affinity for vocal jazz music that eventually led him to pursue a post-secondary education in vocal jazz performance. He studied for a year at Humber College and transferred to the University of Toronto where he graduated with his B. Music in Performance in 2002. Stuart is currently working as the Music Director and Organist for Eden United Church in Mississauga, the Music Director of Oasis Vocal Jazz Ensemble, and the Assistant Conductor of Pax Christi Chorale, and is a member of the Pax Christi Chamber Choir. Along with choral work and teaching, Stuart is a composer and arranger and has taken up English Handbells in his spare time. He will return to school in the fall to start graduate work in Choral Conducting.

■ Ashley Summers

Bassist and composer Ashley Summers has collected musical experiences and opportunities that reach well beyond her years, and her talents have brought her to stages all over the world. As a member of IAJE's Sisters In Jazz Quintet in 2003, she performed at the Mary Lou Williams Women In Jazz Festival in Washington, DC, as well as at legendary festivals in France, The Netherlands and Italy. More recently, Ashley has been busy touring in the US, playing in many celebrated clubs. Aside from keeping a busy performance schedule, Ashley is also an in-demand educator. She currently serves as director for IAJE Canada's Jazzmobile, which places professional jazz musicians in Canadian schools to motivate, educate and inspire young musicians.

■ Marty Summers

Award-winning music educator Marty Summers has been sharing his talents and expertise with the arts community since 1976. As a music educator with the Langley School District for the past 33 years, Marty has become well known for his outstanding enthusiasm and dedication to arts education, inspiring many young musicians. Besides his work in the classroom, he is coordinator of the BC Music Educators Association's Provincial Honour Jazz Band and scholarship committee, a long-time committee member for the Envision Jazz Festival, and music faculty member at Trinity Western University. Most notably, Marty served as president of the Canadian section of the International Association for Jazz Education from January 2005 to July 2008, piloting many new projects in support of music and the arts. He has also become an in-demand adjudicator and clinician, working with concert and jazz bands at festivals and conferences in the Yukon, and throughout Western Canada.

■ Tyler Summers

Nashville-based saxophonist Tyler Summers is no stranger to the stage. Recently named Galaxie's Rising Star at the National Jazz Awards in Canada, Tyler has toured with Canadian country star Johnny Reid over the last three years, and backed up artists ranging from Texas indie band Spoon, to the queen of indie rock herself, Feist. Tyler has made appearances on The Late Show with David Letterman, The Today Show, and the nationally-televised Canadian Country Music Awards. Tyler recently completed a Canadian tour with his trio in support of their brand new album entitled "Live at the Cellar" featuring Juno winners David Braid and Brad Turner.

■ Rod Wiedman

Rod Wiedman was born and raised in Minnesota, receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in Instrumental at Moorhead State University. Rod has taught band for 33 years at Acadia Junior High School in Winnipeg, Manitoba, which boasts one of the largest programs in the province. His groups have won many prestigious provincial, national and international awards. Over the past several years, Rod has served as clinician, educator, conductor and adjudicator for many festivals and honour bands throughout Western Canada.

BACHELOR OF JAZZ STUDIES
 UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA | Marcel A. Desautels Faculty of Music

The Bachelor of Jazz Studies provides a broad and comprehensive program in jazz performance, history, composition and arranging as these topics have developed over the past one hundred years. It also provides a strong foundation in jazz pedagogy.

Jazz is the art of spontaneous composition. A student graduating with this degree will have knowledge and practical experience in jazz performance, composing, arranging and teaching—a tremendous advantage in today's challenging and ever-changing music industry.

JAZZ [JAZ] – noun
 1. { THE ART OF SPONTANEOUS COMPOSITION }

A contemporary jazz musician must master four disciplines:
Performance + Composition + Arranging + Pedagogy
